

AN exchange advocates the one principle for the presidency of the United States. If that principle were now the law, it would stand very much in the way of popular sentiment. There is a sort of an unwritten, or common law, so to speak, which prohibits a third term. But there seems to be no reason of sufficient weight to counterbalance the idea that, when we have tried a president one term, and has made a very good one, and is still in the vigor of his manhood, we ought, as a matter of sound public policy, to endorse his administration by re-electing him to a second term.

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic PILLS.
If the Liver becomes torpid, if the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health. —W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else, to my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and their work thoroughly. I have used them with good effect, in cases of Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, and Dyspepsia. —G. F. Miller, Attleborough, Mass.

Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not do without them. —Morris Gates, Downsville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor. —John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with indigestion, and distressing pains in

The Bowels.

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and in less than one month, I was cured. —Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made. —S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored. —Theodore Ealing, Richmond, Va.

accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine.

The Lumberman needs it in case of accident.

The Housewife needs it for general family use.

The Cannibal needs it for his teams and his men.

The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency.

The Pioneer needs it—can't get along without it.

The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard.

The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore.

The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.

THE Republican Ohio platform comes out openly in favor of a tariff for protection, thus diverting the law from the object had in view by the original authors of the system, viz: to raise revenue to meet the current expenses of the government. According to the platform of that party, the object of a tariff is not so much to raise revenue as to impose a duty (said to now average 35 or 40 per cent.) upon all imported articles, whether of prime necessity or otherwise, and thus add an actual tax of 35 to 40 cents on the dollar on every taxed article purchased by the laboring man. What for? To support some manufacturers that are thus growing rich by being protected to this extent. If a man's business can't be made profitable without taxing everybody else to support it, he ought to quit it. This seems like paying pretty high for a home market for the products of labor. We believe that, of the articles upon which a duty is laid, only about one third are imported, and this third then, of course, produces the revenue, and the tariff amounts to a prohibition as to the other two thirds. In other words, assuming that the average import duty on all the articles assessed is 30 per cent, (or 30 cents on every dollar's worth), then, of this 30 cents the government gets one-third, or 10 cents, and the other 20 cents goes into the pockets of those engaged in the manufacture of the prohibited goods, and for every million raised by the tariff, the people are contributing two million dollars to support and make profitable the business of a certain class of people who have no claims upon them and return them no equivalent. Is this just? Is it right? Is it fair? We would like to hear some protectionist cipher it out.

THE killing of Lane by Lester in Lebanon last week turns out to be a most cowardly and dastardly murder for which he ought to swing; but his excuse is still ten times more cowardly and dastardly. He attempts to escape the consequences of his crime, and lays the capstone to his infamy, by accusing his wife, an innocent, virtuous, and highly respected woman, of incontinence and of improper conduct with Lane. This is worse if possible, than the murder of Lane, and he ought to hang as high as Haman for this his meanness.

THE papers announce that "Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, has not gone to Europe for his health, as was expected, and grave doubts are entertained whether he will ever go. His long seclusion, and the non-committal bulletins from his physician, lead to the fear that his condition is serious." We are afraid the old gentleman learned and contracted bad habits while on his American tour, and is troubled with the presence of imaginary snakes in his boots, or "Snakephobia."

THE old fossil political chestnut John Sherman was endorsed for president the other day by the Ohio Republican Convention. We sincerely hope the National Republican Convention may nominate him. Cleveland would cook his goose for him so effectually that he would retire permanently to his farm and never quit mending fences any more this side of eternity.

THE rumor in circulation to the effect that Prince Ferdinand had, after all, decided to go to Bulgaria and ascend the throne of that much advertised people, seems like the surmises and conjectures of people on the views of the average politician on the prohibition question, rather "premature."

Dickson County Press: Gen. W. J. Broadbush, formerly of Erin, now edits the Clarksville CHRONICLE. The General is an old and experienced newspaper man, and one of the ablest writers in the State, and under his fostering care the paper will no doubt flourish healthily.

A YOUNG woman in Paris named Beligande has been sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for life for killing her lover by throwing vitriol over him. She was a widow at that. In this country they very frequently lift the lid off of a fellow, and pour vitriol on the raw, and nothing is ever thought of it.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Owen & Moore.

Shelbyville Gazette: Mr. W. J. Broadbush has assumed editorial charge of the Clarksville CHRONICLE. His salutatory is temperate, conciliatory and well written, and the paper is to be congratulated in securing such an excellent editor.

A Terrible Surgical Operation
A FATAL MISTAKE.

THE Cleveland (Ohio) Press, of February 23d, 1883, published an account of a fatal surgical operation which caused a great commotion among medical men throughout the whole country, Dr. Thayer, the most eminent surgeon in Cleveland, pronouncing it scandalous. It appears that a Mrs. King had been suffering for many years from some disease of the stomach, which had resisted the treatment of all the physicians in attendance. The disease commenced with a slight derangement of the digestion, with a poor appetite, followed by a peculiar indescribable distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "all gone" sensation, a sticky slime collecting about the teeth, causing a disagreeable taste. This sensation was not removed by food, but, on the contrary, it was increased. After a while the hands and feet became cold and sticky—a cold perspiration. There was a constant tired and languid feeling. Then followed a dreadful nervousness, with gloomy forebodings. Finally the patient was unable to retain any food whatever, and there was constant pain in the abdomen. All prescribed remedies failing to give relief, a consultation was held, when it was decided that the patient had a cancer in the stomach, and in order to save the patient's life an operation was justifiable. Accordingly, on the 22d of February, 1883, the operation was performed by Dr. Vance in the presence of Dr. Tuckerman, Dr. Perrier, Dr. Arms, Dr. Gordon, Dr. Capner, and Dr. Halliwell of the Police Board. The operation consisted in laying open the cavity of the abdomen and exposing the stomach and bowels. When this had been done an examination of the organs was made, but to the horror and dismay of the doctors there was no cancer to be found. The patient did not have a cancer. When too late the medical men discovered that they had made a terrible mistake; but they sewed the parts together and dressed the wound that they had made, but the poor woman sank from exhaustion and died in a few hours. How sad it must be for the husband of this poor woman to know that his wife died from the effects of a surgical operation that ought never to have been performed. If this woman had taken the proper remedy for Dyspepsia and Nervous Prostration (for this was what the disease really was), she would have been living to-day. SHAKER EXTRACT OF ROOTS, or SEIGER'S CURATIVE SYRUP, a remedy made expressly for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, has restored many such cases to perfect health after all other kinds of treatment have failed. The evidence of its efficacy in curing this class of cases is too voluminous to be published here; but those who read the published evidence in favor of this dyspeptic remedy do not question its convincing nature, and the article has an extensive sale.
